CWS – GRANT OF SCHOLARSHIPS TO MERITORIOUS NCC CADETS

1. Ref this HQ Policy letter No 19952/DGNCC/CWS dated 09 Apr 2012 and even no dated 21 Aug 2017 giving out revised eligibility of Cadets for the Scholarship.

2. The number of Scholarships has been increased from 1200 to 1500 in the Governing Body meeting held on 05 Sep 2025, out of which 600 are strictly for Cadets from Rural/Disturbed areas.

3. The vacancies to various Dtes for the Scholarship are enclosed as per Appx 'A' to this letter.

4. The system to be followed for selection of Cadets for Scholarship by each Dte is given in the succeeding paras. This should be strictly followed by all Dtes:-

(a) In the first stage a merit list for 600 slots for Rural/Disturbed area Cadets will be drawn for Rural/Disturbed areas vacancies.

(b) In the second stage a combined merit list for 900 slots for all Cadets (including urban, rural/disturbed areas) may be drawn for the General Category vacancies. Cadets in the first stage merit list will not be considered in the second stage.

(c) If the first stage merit list falls short of covering the number of vacancies for rural/disturbed areas, the shortfall cannot be transferred from the General Category vacancies.

5. The following salient points needs attention besides points mentioned above:-

(a) Only Cadets who are currently in NCC are eligible for CWS Scholarships. Ex NCC Cadets are not eligible (Para 3(a) of Policy Directive 2/2012 refers).

(b) The scholarships will be distributed to Dtes in proportion to their enrolled strength as on 01 Apr each year. In case of Dtes having more than one State/UT within their jurisdiction, the scholarships allotted to that Dte will be sub-distributed to States proportionate to their enrolled strength.

(c) Only those cadets (Both SD/SW and JD/JW) who are at least in the second year of NCC and have scored minimum 65% marks in General Category or 60% marks in Rural/Disturbed area in the previous year with 70% attendance in NCC are eligible for the scholarship (Para 2 of this HQ letter No. 19957/S/DGNCC/CWS dt 21 Aug 2017 refers).

(d) The previous year means exam passed in Apr/May 2026 or if the session is from Jan to Dec then exam passed in Dec 2025. In case of Jan to Dec session, it will be mentioned in the remarks column of Board proceedings.

(e) Applications with grading system should have the percentage of marks certified by the Dte.

(f) If any Cadet has been given extension, the proof thereof may also be sent along with application

(g) The certificate for income declaration and SC/ST are not required to be attached with the application (Para 5 of Policy Directive 2/2012 amended with letter of 21 Aug 2017 refers).

(h) Each NCC Dte will carry out screening/selection of Cadets for award of scholarships as per the guidelines outlined in this letter. There should be only one copy of the application form duly recommended by OC Unit, Group Cdr and DDG/ADG

(j) A separate specimen forms for General category of Cadets and for rural/disturbed areas as per Annexure I to II of Appendix 'A' of letter no 19957/DGNCC/CWS dated 09 April 2012 along with the relevant certificates to be enclosed as indicated in the applications forms

(k) 20% extra applications of the allotted vacancies may be forwarded which can be utilized to make up for any deficiency if found during the screening/scrutiny at this HQ.

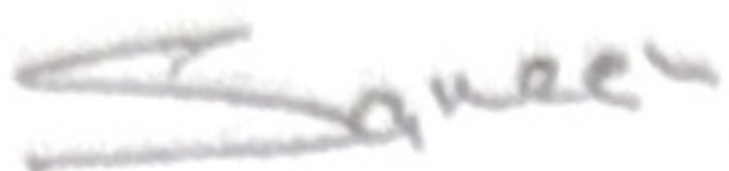

(l) The applications should not be sent in piecemeal and should be forwarded under one letter only along with Board Proceedings of a board held at the Dte which should reach this HQ latest by 30 Nov 2026. No application will be accepted without Board proceedings from Dte.
